Introduction to the Petroleum Industry

 Note to Student *****

Student Success is our number one priority at Coastal Bend College and we realize that prompt, effective communication plays a significant role in achieving that goal. It is vitally important that you have the proper contact information for your instructor. This should include their phone number, email address, and if applicable, their office number, and office hours. If you ever have any problems contacting your instructor, or do not receive a prompt response to your inquiries, please contact the Assistant Dean of Workforce Training, or the Dean of Workforce, as soon as possible. Their contact information is provided below:

Keeping student success in sight, faculty in each of the courses will review with students, course information with specific reading schedules, assignments, and testing information during the first week of class. Additionally, the course information will be posted to Blackboard (THECB 60x30TX compliance).

Course Description: An introduction to the various aspects of petroleum industry including equipment, systems, instrumentation, operations, and the various scientific principles. Addresses a variety of petroleum technologies: exploration, drilling, production, transportation, marketing, and chemical processing industries.

Semester Hours: 3

Lecture/Lab Hours: Class meets for (3) lecture hours per week. Student will be dropped after (3) consecutive unexcused absences.

Prerequisite: Introductory

End-of Course Outcomes

Learning Innovation Excellence Leadership Diversity Respect Service Integrity Collaboration Communication
At all times, in all ways, the student is at the heart of all we do.
Students will have an integral knowledge of the different parts of the industry as follows: origin of oil and gas, exploration, reservoir performance, drilling, formation evaluations, production, transportation, marketing, and refining.

- The students will utilize communication and critical thinking to define the origin of oil and gas, and the different rock formations that oil and gas are produced in.
- The students will utilize empirical and quantitative skills to explain the surface and exploration geology and the cost involved in drilling a well.
- The students will utilize personal responsibility skills to review the how a reservoir performs and how basic drilling information.
- The students will utilize teamwork to discuss how the formation evaluation works, and basic production procedures.
- The students will utilize social responsibility skills to explain the different methods of transportation of oil and gas and various marketing and refining of oil and gas.

Evaluation Methods: Will be based on the following criteria:

A-100-90 Points, B 89-80, C 79-70, D 69-60, F 59 & Below

Student Learning Outcome: Students will describe in detail the assessments of exploration, production, refining, marketing, and transportation in the oil and gas industry.

Student Contribution: Each student is expected to spend (3) hours per week preparing for class.

Attendance is crucial for the success of this course.

This Course consists of:

1. Individual reading, taking notes in the classroom.
2. Completion of homework assignments on time.
3. Lectures and demonstrations by the instructor.
4. Class discussion on material taught.
5. Completion of work book assignments on visual aids.
6. Comprehensive Quizzes and Tests given by Instructor.
7. Completion of all tests on time.
8. Make up work will have a 10 point penalty for every day that is not made up.

Teaching methods:

1. Lecture
2. Demonstrations
3. Projects
4. Visual Aids
5. Homework Assignments

Course Evaluation Methods:

1. Homework Assignments
2. Written Tests and Quizzes
3. Final Exam
Course Outline:

I. How the earth was formed.
   a) How the earth was formed and oil and gas were deposited.
   b) How the geologic structure of the earth formed different types of rock formations.

II. Petroleum Origins and Accumulation.
   a) Student will learn different types of rock properties.
   b) Student will learn different types of traps.
   c) Student will learn different reservoir pressures.

III. Petroleum Exploration
   a) Exploration of the past.
   b) Exploration Geology
   c) Seismic Geology
   d) Geologic tools used in the industry.

IV. Basic Contracts & Regulations
   a) Land Ownership
   b) Acquiring mineral rights
   c) Different petroleum contracts

V. Reservoir Performance
   a) Different reservoir fluids
   b) Different reservoir drives
   c) Gas Reservoirs
   d) Water Flooding

VI. Drilling
   a) Introduction to drilling
   b) Early drilling rigs
   c) Rotary drilling
   d) Drilling crews
   e) Drilling procedures

VII. Formation Evaluations
   a) Coring
   b) Open Hole well logs
   c) Data Requirements

VIII. Well Completions
   a) Casing
   b) Cementing
   c) Well Stimulation
   d) Sand Control
   e) Equipping the well to produce

IX. Production
   a) Natural Reservoir Flow
   b) Artificial Lift
   c) Sucker Rod Pumping

X. Natural Gas & Oil
   a) Markets
   b) Field handling of natural gas
c) Disposal of surplus associated gas

d) Natural Gas pipelines

XI. Refining and Petrochemicals
   a) Process
   b) Petrochemicals

XII. Petroleum Marketing
   a) Crude marketing
   b) OPEC and Crude pricing
   c) Natural Gas marketing
   d) Refined and petrochemical product marketing
