Dean of Academics, Mark L. Secord: 361-354-2529; secordm@coastalbend.edu

We wish you all the best in your education and encourage you to contact us if you have any questions or concerns.

Course Description: This course is an introduction to the world's major regions seen through their defining physical, social, cultural, political, and economic features. These regions are examined in terms of their physical and human characteristics and their interactions. The course emphasizes relations among regions on issues such as trade, economic development, conflict, and the role of regions in the globalization process.

Semester Hours Credit: 3

Lecture/Lab Hours: 3-0

Prerequisite: To enroll in any science course, students must demonstrate readiness to perform college level academic coursework in reading and writing according to Coastal Bend College academic skills assessment guidelines. Basic computer skills are also required.

Textbook(s): World Regions in Global Context (5th edition) ISBN: 9780321821058

- Student must also have internet access in order to complete assignments.

Course Learning Outcomes:

Upon successful completion of this course, students will:

1. Define and explain the geographic concept of “region.”
2. Locate significant geographic features of regions of the world and describe their cultural, economic, political, and physical characteristics.
3. Demonstrate knowledge of each region’s role in a globalizing world.
4. Apply geographic concepts to understanding current events, conflicts, and issues in a regional context.

Evaluation Methods:

This course is based on a series of exams, map quizzes, discussions and internet activities. To be successful in the course, it will be necessary for the student to complete the exams, quizzes, discussions and activities before the posted deadlines and keep up with assigned readings. Students will need to have reliable access to a primary and backup computer (on campus, in a public library, etc.). There will be a total of four (4) exams—three (3) exams and a non-comprehensive final. Review sheets for each exam will be posted on Blackboard.

ADA Statement: No qualified individual with a disability shall, by reason of such disability, be excluded from participation in or be denied the benefits of the services, programs, or activities of the College District, or be subjected to discrimination by the College District. Nor shall the College District exclude or otherwise deny equal services, programs, or activities to an individual because of the known disability of an individual with whom the individual is known to have a relationship or association. 42 U.S.C. 12132; 28 CFR 35.130(g).
