***** Note to Student *******

Student success is our number one priority at Coastal Bend College and we realize that prompt, effective communication plays a significant role in achieving that goal. It is vitally important that you have the proper contact information for your instructor. This should include their phone number, email address, and if applicable, their office number, and office hours. If you ever have any problems contacting your instructor, or do not receive a prompt response to your inquiries, please contact the Director of Academics, or the Dean of Academics, as soon as possible. Their contact information is provided below:

Director of Academics, Dr. Kevin Behr: 361-354-2338; kevind@coastalbend.edu

Dean of Academics, Mark L. Secord: 361-354-2529; secordm@coastalbend.edu

We wish you all the best in your education and encourage you to contact us if you have any questions or concerns.

Course Description: This stand-alone course is an interdisciplinary survey of cultures focusing on the philosophical and aesthetic factors in human values with an emphasis on the historical development of the individual and society and the need to create.

Semester Hours Credit: 3

Lecture/Lab Hours: 3-0

Prerequisite: None

Textbook(s): Perceiving the Arts: An Introduction to the Humanities (11th edition) ISBN: 9780205995110

Course Learning Outcomes:

Upon successful completion of this course, students will:

1. Demonstrate awareness of the scope and variety of works in the arts and humanities.
2. Articulate how these works express the values of the individual and society within a historical and social context.
3. Articulate an informed personal response and critically analyze works in the arts and humanities.
4. Demonstrate knowledge and understanding of the influence of literature, philosophy, and the arts on cultural experiences.
5. Demonstrate an awareness of the creative process and why humans create.

Evaluation Methods:

Three (3) exams worth a maximum of 100 points each will be given during the semester. The exams will cover material from the text, material presented in class and from material assigned outside of class. A semester project worth a maximum of 100 points to be worked on throughout the semester will count as a fourth grade. Attendance and class participation will be factored into the final average and will result in five (5) points added to or subtracted from the exam/project average.

Students may earn extra credit by attending extracurricular activities designated by the instructor throughout the semester. (5 points maximum added to final average.) A one to two (1 – 2) page typed summary/reaction paper must be submitted for each extra credit activity in order to receive points.

The final grade will be determined as follows:

A = 90 – 100    B = 80 – 89    C = 70 – 79    D = 60 – 69    F = below 60

ADA Statement: No qualified individual with a disability shall, by reason of such disability, be excluded from participation in or be denied the benefits of the services, programs, or activities of the College District, or be subjected to discrimination by the College District. Nor shall the College District exclude or otherwise deny equal services, programs, or activities to an individual because of the known disability of an individual with whom the individual is known to have a relationship or association. 42 U.S.C. 12132; 28 CFR 35.130(g).
