Student Learning Outcomes:

Upon successful completion of this course, students will:

1. Develop skills and craft in painting techniques by focusing on significant historical master works.
2. Understand composition and color as related to painting analysis and critique process.
3. Experience techniques in the basic fundamental subject matter of:
 - a. Four (4) basic geometric shapes – sphere, cube, cylinder, and cone - using realistic approach in a monochromatic color scheme.
 - b. Still life arrangement of fruit or vegetable enlarged using a realistic approach, primary colors – red, yellow, and blue – and complementary color scheme.
 - c. Still life arrangement of varied textural surfaces such as transparent glass, metal, wood, floral, or plant life and rough textured fabric in a full palette color scheme. Realistic approach with the use of some palette knife for textural effects or experimental approach.
 - d. Still life arrangement of flowers, container, and drapery using complementary color scheme in a “pointillist approach” for optical blending an expressionistic approach.
 - e. Landscape with emphasis on scenery or plant life (foliage) sky with a barn, shed or shack as possible secondary interest. Earth colors for the color scheme using a realistic approach.
 - f. Self-portrait with the aid of a mirror in a realistic approach using a natural skin-tone palette.
4. Experience use of varied ground supports for painting surfaces. Student preparation of supports stretched and primed canvas.
5. Experience varied painting techniques of realism and expressionism as evident in class discussion in the study of great master works.
6. Acquire a working knowledge of nomenclature and terms related to painting as evidenced by a short final quiz (true-false, multiple choice, and completion questions).
7. Acquire first-hand knowledge of natural and man-made environment through use of outside sketching from nature and historical research of the great masters as evidenced by individual student sketch books.
