

Biography – D. Medellin, RN

Ms. Daniella Medellin is an assistant professor of the vocational nursing program at Coastal Bend College – Alice site since October, 2015. She is a registered nurse and is currently enrolled in the University of Texas in Arlington for her Master's of Science in Nursing. She earned Associate of Science of Registered Nursing at Coastal Bend College in Alice in 2016. She earned her Licensed Vocational Nurse Certificate at Coastal Bend College in Alice in 2008.. Her nursing related employment history includes five (5) years of experience in geriatric care for a local nursing home and five (5) years of experience in several departments including the intensive care unit, emergency department, medical surgical, skilled nursing, rehab, and pediatrics unit for a small community hospital. She has taught several classes in the Coastal Bend College Vocational Nursing Program including:

(Face to Face, Hybrid, On-line)

- VNSG 1116 Nutrition
- VNSG 1133 Growth and Development
- VNSG 1126 Gerontology
- VNSG 1323 Basic Nursing Skills – Nursing Skills Instruction (Lab)
- VNSG 1329 Medical Surgical Nursing I
- VNSG 1361 Clinical – Level 1
- VNSG 1230 Maternal-Neonatal Nursing
- VNSG 1234 Pediatrics
- VNSG 1219 Leadership and Professional Development
- VNSG 1201 Mental Health
- VNSG 2360 Clinical – Level 2
- VNSG 2366 Clinical – Level 3 Practicum
- VNSG 2431 Advanced Nursing Skills – Nursing Skills Instruction (Lab)

Ms. Medellin is from Alice, Texas. She enjoys teaching and strives to make a difference in each nursing student's education. She believes each student has the power to achieve his/her goals and encourages each student to work hard and never give up! She sets high standards for each student in the vocational nursing program and nurtures professionalism, critical thinking, and compassion in each future nurse. As a dedicated advisor, she guides students through their educational journey to achieve the dream at Coastal Bend College, and that is student success!